

Lyrical Correct

Join with poet and professor at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Writing Department – Liz Cross – and entertainer, producer – Dave Randall – for a fun breakout session that will have your group rapping their own song together. Designed to develop writing skills and encourage creative process and thinking, this exciting hour and a half program is sure to enhance any group's teamwork.

Take advantage of the opportunity to:

- foster team spirit
- enhance team creativity
- activate analytic skills
- develop public speaking and communication skills
- encourage new writing techniques

Here's how it works:

Part 1: We lead participants through a series of fun individual and small group writing exercises that result in a poem.

Part 2: We teach the group some basic concepts about rap music composition and help turn the poetry into an original rap song.

Part 3: Small teams get ready to perform their song! Rappers and crew rehearse and dress for their big moment in front of the audience.

This session can be tailored to your specific theme or needs to tie-in with the day's programming. Your staff will come back from the teambuilding feeling not only refreshed, but connected to their team, smarter, more creative, and like a star.
